

Re-Creation

An all age Dances of Universal Peace Gathering

A follow-up to the cancelled 2010 Summer Solstice Camp.

When life gives you lemons ,
Make lemonade, and recreate.

August 13 – 16, 2010

Friday thru Monday - near Fort Collins, Colorado, at Buckhorn Camp with Grace Marie and Maboud Charles

Grace Marie - Grace is a teacher for all ages and has been offering The Dances of Universal Peace and Harmonic Temple (chants in 4 part harmony) in Fort Collins and worldwide. Her formal education is in the sciences, as well as in dance and music. With her initial degree in Forest/Natural Resources Management, she worked for the Forest Service in Alaska, Colorado and Ohio, and became a jr/sr high school science teacher in the US and abroad. Her focus is being “human”, to develop the relationship within oneself, with other humans, with nature, and with all sentient beings. Grace, with her daughter, Jasmine, live in Fort Collins and enjoys film, free movement dance, walking, meditation and much more.

Maboud Charles – is a certified dance leader and mentor of the Dances of Universal Peace in Santa Fe, NM. He is a licensed counselor utilizing a mindfulness informed psychotherapy approach as well as the methods of depth psychology and biofeedback. He has worked as a counselor, trainer and administrator in the mental health system for over 3 decades. Maboud enjoys gardening, meditation practice, hiking, nature photography, children's storytelling and occasionally writing poetry and playing with puppets.
